CROCUS	RED EMPEROR	HYACINTHS	SYLVESTRIS
Harbingers of spring, plant them freely throughout your garden. One of the earliest spring flowers—colorful mixture.	The largest of all tulips! Spectacular brilliant scarlet flowers opening to nine inches or more. Tall and sturdy, certain to attract attention.	Traditional heralds of spring and Easter. Colorful, fragrant flowers for groups or borders. Large bulbs of blue, pink, white or yellow.	A multi-flowered tulip that rivals the yellow daffodil. Several violet scented nodding flowers from each bulb. One of the Species.

AMAZING

Flowering Bulb

BLOOMS THIS AUTUMN!

COLCHICUM is truly a flower oddity. It blooms without care. Just set the bulb on a table, window sill or any spot where light is adequate. Nature does the rest in producing up to 12 large violet-hued crocus-like flowers—an ideal gift. Bulbs may be saved for future flowering.
